

BRECON VOTERS DELIVER THEIR VERDICT ON TORY GOVERNMENT:-

LAMEN TABLE!

Thatcherism
a disaster for Britain

FOR A LONG TIME we have been saying that Mrs. Thatcher's Government is one of the worst Britain has ever had. Now there are increasing signs that the people are waking up to this fact. The latest is the by-election result from Brecon and Radnor, where the Tories came third in the poll. The chickens are at last coming home to roost as far as Tory policies are concerned. In fact in almost every sector of national affairs the Government has failed miserably. Here are a few examples:-

THE ECONOMY: Unemployment is still up around the 3¼ million mark. British industry is not getting on its feet, as the Government's apologists have continually been saying it would; on the contrary, it is dying, with more and more firms going out of business. The huge import invasion continues unabated, with the Government prepared to do nothing to protect the British firms hit by foreign competition, much of it unfair.

LAW AND ORDER: This continues to collapse, with the crime rate jumping to alarming proportions. Despite all the tough words from the Tory benches, we are still hopelessly soft in dealing with criminals in the courts, with sentences completely inadequate to deter them from their crimes. In many areas of Britain's inner cities it is unsafe for women or old folk to venture out alone either in the day or at night.

THE COMMON MARKET: The European Community has become an ever greater noose around Britain's neck. We have not obtained the trade benefits that the Tories always promised would come from membership.

And the Market bureaucrats are increasingly dictating to us how to run our domestic affairs. IMMIGRATION: The promises made by Mrs. Thatcher to control and reduce immigration have proved to be utterly fraudulent. Still the immigrants are pouring in, taking British jobs and straining Britain's social services. And any slight reduction in those landing at our sea and airports is more than outbalanced by the huge birthrate of immigrant families. Large urban areas of our country are becoming outposts of the West Indies and Asia.

EDUCATION: Our education system is fast collapsing, with falling standards in schools everywhere. The Government has done nothing to reverse the 'trendy, lefty' education policies of its Labour predecessor introduced by the disastrous Shirley Williams, with their levelling down tendencies which hold back the brainy and the talented. Nor has anything been done to reverse the slackening of school discipline.

THE I.R.A.: The bombers and the gunmen still continue their

FAILED PRIME MINISTER
Mrs. Thatcher was given the thumbs down by Brecon & Radnor voters.

Other parties offer no alternative

THE VOTES going to the Liberals and Labour at Brecon and Radnor were nothing more than desperation votes. Labour has a long record of failure stretching back to before the war, and there is no indication that the party under the leadership of Neil Kinnock will be any different. Kinnock is just the tame tool of Arthur Scargill and the red guards who now control the party.

As for the Liberal and Social Democratic Parties, their policies are just a mish-mash of the failed policies of Tory and Labour put together under other names. They offer no real alternative to the British people.

Black no-go areas for police in Britain's cities - official

A SENIOR POLICE OFFICER in charge of the multi-racial London Borough of Hackney has "advised" his men not to make immediate arrests of criminals in their own areas if it will, as he puts it, "alienate local residents and cause unnecessary trouble." This instruction has been issued to his officers by Chief Superintendent Lionel Stapley. It is part of a carefully phrased memorandum, headed "Sensitive Policing", in which Chief Supt. Stapley goes out of his way in trying to avoid reference to blacks, although that is obviously what he means.

Instead he tries to conceal the truth behind a mush of bland verbiage and make-believe. He will not face up to the hideous and monstrous reality of multi-racial Britain. He has not the courage to admit the most basic facts.

In the wording of Supt. Stapley's memorandum, the violent blacks who attack his officers when they attempt to perform their duty by carrying out arrests in districts with big concentrations of blacks are described as "the public". Mr. Stapley talks about the times when "the public physically assisted police officers in effecting arrests," and then, incredibly, goes on to whine that "tragically, that support has largely been lost, mainly due to the fact that police have lost contact with the public."

This is typical of the ploy whereby prominent establishment figures, whether politicians of all the established parties or the "public servants" who do their bidding, try, by playing with words, to slur over the destruction of British society brought about by mass coloured immigration. Supt. Stapley obviously believes he can con us all, his own officers included, that the public which used to assist police in their enforcement of the law is the same as what he calls the "public" which routinely riots against them when they try to do the same on the streets of London today. Or, in other words, the police "have lost contact with the public" through mysterious causes that are unknown and undiscoverable!

WHITES POWERLESS AND TREATED WITH CONTEMPT

The insult implied against the white population is obvious, but then Supt. Stapley and other establishment figures have calculated that the whites are politically powerless and disorganised, and consequently have no point of view that need be reckoned with or respected and can therefore be safely insulted. The Tory, Labour and Liberal/SDP politicians of the establishment have seen to it that only the "ethnic minority" elements count. In Hackney, the Labour party rabble who run the Borough care only about the blacks and are quite happy to see the whites, who in large masses go on simply-mindedly voting for them, fall victim to black violence.

The fact is, as Supt. Stapley must know very well, that the forms of crime (epidemic mugging, etc.) which have turned the streets, not only of his own Borough but of most of inner London, into a nightmare of fear and violence, have come about as a result of one population being replaced by another. In Britain's inner cities over the past 30 years white communities have been smashed up and displaced by mass coloured immigration. The white man's way of life has been replaced by that of the black.

The growth of this crime alongside the black presence is reflected in the official crime figures of the Metropolitan Police, showing that muggings and other related crimes are overwhelmingly committed by blacks. That is the explanation why the police have "lost contact" with the populations of so many inner city areas. It is not to be expected that the denizens of London's third-world tribal enclaves

TERRORISM MUST BE SMASHED!

THE SUCCESSFUL hi-jacking of an American aircraft to Beirut and the kidnapping of its passengers have once again shown up America and, by implication, all the Western "liberal democracies", as the soft target that they are.

First there was the ease with which the plane could be taken by a band of sufficiently ruthless armed men, without any evident security precautions, and with everything left to chance. Then came the degrading spectacle of some of the kidnapped passengers pleading publicly with their President not to make any attempt at retaliation against their captors.

Here, in miniature, is exposed the whole character of modern Western "liberal democracy". No planning or foresight, no courage or willpower, no decisiveness or action in response to crisis.

We live in a world of hard and ruthless struggle. The only fate the weak can expect is to be crushed out of existence, if not at a single blow, then by pressure gradually stepped up with every act of submission and every concession which is made to secure short-term comfort.

In terrorist outrages of this kind the correct line is that, no matter what the terrorist does, he will not get what he wants. He must be made to realise that if he carries out any threat to murder hostages then a terrible revenge will be visited mercilessly on himself and his supporters. But, whatever he does, none of his demands will ever be met.

Liberal democracies cannot take this line. To begin with, they promote and pander to a puny mentality of materialism and flabby self-indulgence in their citizens. Against this background, neither President Reagan nor any other "democratic" leader could take a hard line. They are dependent on the votes of a flock of sheep encouraged to inhabit a smug, sentimental and selfish cloud-cuckooland of individual material wellbeing which they do not want disrupted by hard decisions. Even with all the material power at his disposal Reagan could make no decision in favour of standing firm whatever the price, or of retaliation, as he ought. There might be bloodletting. It might cost him votes!

No more will our own government crush the IRA, although they have the armed force to do it. That would mean a fight, and (horror of horrors!) self-discipline and self-sacrifice among the population — a real vote-loser!

Thus liberal democracies are the target of terrorism, one of the nastiest weapons of the enemies of Western man, because their weakness encourages it.

Terrorism must be smashed, whatever the cost in blood and material sacrifice!

Ultimately, only an authoritarian nationalist state, which educates its citizens from youth towards a mature attitude of self-sacrifice for the common good, can give a people the means of winning through against such threats.

will ever have the "implicit trust in the police" whose disappearance Supt. Stapley so weakly laments.

As the Superintendent admits, there is now a situation where every time police make an arrest in Hackney, they can expect to have the members of, in his words, "certain minority groups closely question their actions" (i.e. threaten or viciously assault them in a mob) — none of which (of course!) "necessarily" means that they "do not support law and order." Apparently, according to Mr. Stapley, it merely means they "do not understand it"!!

As British taxpayers, footing the bill for Mr. Stapley's salary, we may offences", where an immediate arrest would cause "public reaction" (i.e. a black riot), there is no need to take immediate action. An arrest warrant can be obtained if the offender is known. There is no suggestion as to what to do if he is not. Presumably he is allowed to get away scot-free.

— In "sensitive" (i.e. black-dominated) areas, police may avoid carrying out an arrest. An offender can be arrested away from such areas (if the police are lucky enough to find him!).

— If police make immediate arrests in such areas (a very big "if", by the look of it!) they should ensure sufficient transport to high-tail it away as quickly as possible.

— Where arrests are made, explanations should be made to "the public" (meaning, no doubt, the blacks) and especially must the police justify themselves to (and get the permission of?) the "representatives of the public" (does this mean, we ask, the local black "community leaders", usually the biggest, nastiest and most thuggish members of the local black criminal fraternity?).

Black arrested during riot. Will this be possible in the future?

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES

In other words, these blacks are to be granted the freedoms and privileges of lords of the manor over large parts of our capital city. Granted rights unknown to any large section of our own people in the whole of British history, the black mob, and those who organise and incite it, are to determine how far the law of the land is to apply over large areas of Britain.

Mr. Stapley claims that "sensitive policing" is not soft policing. This is obviously a sop to any whites who might object to Britain being surrendered piecemeal to alien mayhem. "Sensitive policing" means, in effect, no-go areas.

The pattern of Northern Ireland comes ever closer to mainland Britain as established authority retreats before violence and aggression.

In a recent issue of British Nationalist we exposed the nature and extent of the criminal black terror that stalks Hackney. Now the whites know why. Established authority is feebly buckling up all the way down the line. The whites have now been given official notice that, in future, establishment politicians and decision-makers, and the police who carry out their orders, will give them no protection.

These establishment figures, whether at Westminster, in local councils or in any other positions of power and influence, are traitors to the British nation. As such, they cannot morally claim the allegiance of the British people.

The time is now here for all white men and women to be organised and united under the banners of the British National Party, for the fight to reconquer their country from the tyranny that is being forced upon them.

Whites will remain disorganised, powerless and without so much as a voice in their own affairs so long as they continue to support and vote for the anti-British tricksters and traitors of the Labour, Conservative, Liberal and Social Democratic Parties.

There is only one way forward. Britain needs a revolution — a white man's revolution! The present political establishment must be swept away. Only the revolution of British Nationalism can give our people a future.

WHERE THE BLAME LIES

IN THIS ISSUE we are giving particular prominence to the increase in lawlessness in Britain which is resulting from the failed experiment of the multi-racial society. In doing so we wish to make it clear that we do not regard the black criminals to which we have drawn attention as representative of the whole of the non-white immigrant communities, many of whose members are law-abiding. At the same time we consider it only right where racial minorities account for a disproportionate number of certain crimes for this fact to be made known — as it is a fact vitally necessary to an understanding of the problems involved in a multi-racial society and to the achievement of a just solution to these problems.

We firmly believe that at the root of the evil is not the non-white population of Britain itself but the policy of multi-racialism, the blame for which lies not with Blacks but with mainly white politicians, who have promoted this policy against the interests of all ethnic groups and for their own ends.

To all those who are angered by the facts set out in this issue we urge that they do NOT vent their anger on members of Britain's ethnic minorities but save that anger for the politicians who have created the problem and, with us, seek the solution in peaceful and lawful POLITICAL ACTION to create a consensus in Britain for the termination of the multi-racial experiment and the peaceful and humane segregation of the races by means of resettlement of Britain's non-white ethnic communities in suitable lands overseas.

... MEANWHILE, INNER CITY TERROR GROWS LIKE A CANCER

AS THE POLICE make it plain that, under the conditions of the multi-racial society, they can no longer even protect themselves, let alone anybody else, the violence on the streets of our cities increases. Some blacks sense the weakness of those in positions of authority. Everywhere this alien mayhem spreads like a cancer, as recent outbreaks show:

MOB BRINGS TERROR

— In Hackney on May Bank Holiday Sunday evening, a rampaging mob brought terror to local streets with violent robberies and attacks on innocent people. The more than 100 rioters were part of a 500-strong crowd leaving a reggae concert organised by unemployed black "students". Over 14 robberies were reported along a mile-and-a-half stretch of road. Many of these were carried out at knifepoint and all involved extreme violence. Bus crews, staff in fast-food shops, a security messenger, a stock controller and other ordinary working folk were beaten, kicked and robbed by gangs. Many of the victims ended up in hospital.

Local police knew in advance that the reggae event was taking place. The rampage was allowed to last for two hours. Supt. John Peck of Stoke Newington Police Station said afterwards that police were "distressed" by what had happened, but that they do not want to undertake "heavy-handed policing".

— Two women, a schoolteacher of 39 and a midwife of 32, fell victim to a gang of three rapists, led by 19-year-old West Indian Waneton Thompson, who prowled the streets of East London on bicycles. 18 months after being attacked in their homes the two rape victims still suffer regular nightmares. In sentencing Thompson and his fellow gang-members to terms of youth custody for rape and robbery, Judge Robert Lymbery, QC, said that the "evil" members of this gang had threatened the women with being stabbed to death and subjected them to appalling sex acts.

— In March, two sisters were attacked and raped at knifepoint in the bedroom of their home in Wandsworth, London SW, by a black intruder. The beast raped the elder of the two girls twice.

More than a quarter of the young women interviewed in a recent survey fear that they may be raped within the next 12 months. The picture of London that emerges is of a city terrorised by crime and increasingly comparable to New York. In that city the whole way of life is dominated by fear of muggers, burglars and rapists, a large portion of them non-white.

— On Kingsmead Estate, East London, a 15-month-old toddler was kicked into the air like a football by a black mugger as his father was threatened by another black with an iron bar in the course of a robbery. Mr. Brian Warrington had taken his baby son to a playground when they were attacked by the gang, which forced him to hand over £100 in benefits. The child had to be treated for shock. Even the local white criminal underworld was said to be sickened by the attack.

VICIOUS STABBING

In the end even the best members of the police service themselves fall victim in one way or another. Courageous PC George Hammond was stabbed in the stomach with a 12-inch butcher's knife by a West Indian youth. The young black criminal, Christopher Ogleton, was raiding a sweetshop in East Dulwich, London SE, for money to buy cannabis, when the off-duty policeman walked in and grappled with him. In the course of the struggle Ogleton plunged his knife into PC Hammond, then ran off with £7 in cash stolen from the shop's till. He had earlier announced that he needed quick cash to buy "weed". Ogleton received a term of youth custody. PC Hammond, who nearly died, has lost the use of both kidneys and will require dialysis for the rest of his life.

Thus decent and productive whites are sacrificed by the establishment and its multi-racialist system to the vicious and worthless criminal element that is a major factor in the steady destruction of British society.

... and in Toxteth:-

IN THE SUMMER OF 1981 this black-dominated neighbourhood of Liverpool was torn apart by one of the most violent and destructive race-riots yet seen in Britain. As described by one police observer: "The violence and the naked hatred of the police put St. Pauls, Moss Side, Southall and even Brixton in the shade. Millions of pounds worth of property was destroyed in an orgy of arson and looting."

According to the same writer, "More than three years have passed, but little has changed in Toxteth." Assaults on police are a serious problem. A young woman officer reports being knocked down without warning, simply walking along the street. Local thugs have lured police into ambushes in cul-de-sacs by making fake 999 calls.

The left-wing vermin which now politically controls Merseyside sees in the violence of Toxteth's blacks the ideal weapon for promoting their anti-British revolution. "Race Relations" officials ceaselessly din into the heads of the blacks that they are the "oppressed victims" of white society, and especially the police. Liverpool City Council is led by Cllr. Derek Hatton, backed by a far-left clique of Militant Tendency Labour party reds. Under this Marxist gang the "Community Activists" of the "Liverpool 8 Defence Committee", an anti-police red front organisation set up in Toxteth at the time of the riots primarily to whip up the blacks, have been rewarded with paid positions as "social workers", sponsored by the council.

A local red vicar, a typical specimen of the decadent professional bleeding hearts, often homosexuals, who now infest the churches, made a recent broadcast on Radio Merseyside in which he praised the vicious anti-police and anti-white racial violence of Liverpool 8. He compared it to the way, as he claimed, miners' wives were "defending their communities" — a clear attempt to inflame the multi-racial left-wing mob.

POVERTY NOT THE CAUSE

Despite all this communist-style agitation over "racism and oppression", Toxteth is by no means the poorest inner-city area on Merseyside. Major public investment in housing and other matters goes back well before the riots. It does, however, have the highest concentration of "ethnic minorities". It was also the only area to have major riots, and largely monopolised the "emergency aid" poured into Liverpool, as the rioters' reward, by the feeble and cowardly government of Mrs. Thatcher, which has spared no effort to cut services and promote unemployment for whites in depressed areas throughout Britain.

NOTHING HAS CHANGED

Police reaction has been as weak and perverse as that of the government. The crime-rate in Toxteth is at least as appalling as before the riots. Criminals resident in the area now also go far afield throughout the city of Liverpool to commit their crimes. Meanwhile "Special Policing Arrangements" are in force for Liverpool 8 — when is a crime not a crime? When it's committed in Toxteth. Offenders are not simply arrested as they would be in white areas. In the words of one officer, "You're not really allowed to police." This makes crime-figures artificially low.

This weak response has not helped Merseyside Chief Constable Kenneth Oxford. The Police Committee, dominated by pro-black leftists and liberals under Cllr. Margaret Simey, even now does not consider that Liverpool police are soft enough on blacks and is currently making moves to oust Mr. Oxford.

Toxteth 1981: Black mob beats up policeman (top); 1985: Police patrol in twos, often with dogs (right)

And so, as the cancer of multi-racial anarchy and communist revolution spreads across Merseyside, as across the rest of Britain, only British Nationalists stand for law and order and justice for the decent majority of law-abiding Britons. We alone stand for work and order in a white Britain.

RED GANGSTERS BEHIND 'BLACK POWER'

THE REAL FORCE responsible for black and Asian mayhem against the police, and British society in general, is shown clearly in the case of the London Borough of Hackney.

Hackney Council, completely dominated by pro-black Labour party reds, has played a leading role in undermining law and order in the Borough and thereby making it a buggers and rapists paradise. At one stage the gaggle of careerists, traitors and "ethnic minority" elements that controls the Council threatened to withhold the payment, which it is obliged by law to make, towards the cost of the local police service. This was done as a means of making obvious its bias in favour of the local blacks who were at the time being stirred up against the "racism" of the police (i.e. any effort on their part to maintain the law and order considered essential in a white society).

AGITATION

In the Stoke Newington area a mentally deranged black youth named Colin Roach had killed himself with a shotgun in the foyer of the local police station. Despite the inquest verdict that Roach had committed suicide, local reds (both from the Labour party and extreme left-wing gangster groups whose members occupy squats in the Borough) cynically whipped up vicious agitation over his death.

Blacks were easily induced to believe that he had been "murdered by police."

A protest march involving large numbers of local "ethnic minority" elements was held through the centre of the locality. No police ban was imposed on this march. As the mostly black march went along Stoke Newington High Street a sizeable mob of these "demonstrators" broke away from the column to attack, terrorise and mug passers-by on the pavement and rob local shops in gangs.

At the end of the march a rally was held, addressed by a Hackney Labour MP.

This is how the trick is really worked whereby blacks are made to appear an irresistible force. In actual fact it is only the presence of powerfully-placed reds behind them to organise them and do their thinking for them that gives the "ethnic minorities" any muscle.

The real power behind the left and the Labour party is the assortment of queers, lesbians, drug-taking student parasites and other inferior and defective scum. Criminal Marxist elements have nothing in common with the British working class. It is their aim to use the black mob to smash British society (including the decent white working class) in order to get absolute power into their own hands.

"Black power" and "anti-racism" are their weapons.

REAGAN GOVERNMENT IN JEWISH TERRORISM COVER-UP

PRESIDENT REAGAN has been full of strong talk (though not of strong action) against Arab terrorism. But he is strangely silent when it comes to Jewish terrorism, against which desperate acts by Arabs have merely been a reaction.

Top national security officials in the United States are said to be dismayed over a recent directive from the President requiring that all reference to the violent activities of the terrorist Jewish Defence League (JDL) should henceforth be eliminated from federal crime reports.

This directive came in the aftermath of a speech to an enthusiastic Jewish audience in a New York synagogue by Reagan's Secretary of State, George Shultz, praising Israel as a "bulwark against terrorism." Critics were quick to point out that an official government report on terrorism in the United States shows members of the Jewish Defence League, and other militant supporters of the State of Israel, to have committed 19 terrorist crimes in America since 1979. The FBI's official survey of terrorism shows the only Middle Eastern government whose supporters and militants have organised a terror network in America is Israel.

Moreover, the FBI report shows that Jewish terrorist groups (further identified as "supporters of the State of Israel") ranked third among all known terrorist organisations in the total number of bombings, acts of arson, assaults and assassinations committed against American citizens over the past five years.

The Israeli Embassy found these facts "embarrassing", and complained to the White House about their being published under official seal.

Reagan's subsequent cover-up efforts are a reflection of the pressure that he is under to cringe and obey whenever the Jewish whip is cracked. This is required of all prominent US political figures, who could not have made their careers without truckling to the Jewish money-power that dominates the system.

Jews form 2.7 per-cent of America's population. They contribute no less than 50 per-cent of the Democratic Party's funds, and 25 per-cent of the Republican Party's finances. In return for each Jewish dollar contributed, it is calculated that the bought politicians (such as Reagan), who thus depend on Jewish grace and favour, return $100 in economic and military aid to the bandit-state of Israel — all at the US taxpayer's expense. This aid currently stands at $3.75 billion a year.

ARSON ATTACK

Particularly embarrassing to Reagan and his Jewish masters was the arson attack by the JDL in July 1984 on the California headquarters of the Institute of Historical Review (IHR). This organisation has done sterling and courageous work in exposing the so-called World War II "Jewish Holocaust" as a monstrous hoax, always in the face of Jewish violence. Following the attack, JDL leader Irv Rubin held a press conference at which he publicly rejoiced over this terrorist act.

In order to avoid involving Israel in this crime, the FBI, in response to White House orders, came up with the bizarre expedient of excluding all "crimes motivated by hate between private groups and individuals" from its annual terrorism survey. Only attacks on government officials or property were, in future, to be defined as "terrorist". Thus, although the attack on the IHR is the worst terrorist crime on recent record in the US, it will not be given consideration as such by the FBI, or other police agencies, because it was motivated by Jewish hatred! The US government also favours the use of deception, with attempts to lay the blame for Jewish terrorist acts on other groups.

Vice-President Bush, Reagan's number two, has recently urged NATO countries not to "knuckle under to terrorism", stating that the American administration was determined to defeat it. In actual fact, by coddling and protecting Israel and its Jewish supporters (who have never been slow to use the most bloodthirsty methods against anyone who stood in their way), the US government is protecting the most vicious terrorist force on earth.

It should never be forgotten that the Jews form an international network. Jewish power is of international extent and reaches into our own country, where President Reagan's ardent supporter, Margaret Thatcher, has appointed more Jews to positions of power than any previous Prime Minister. With such figures as Jewish Home Secretary Leon Brittan in charge of law and order, there can be no guarantee whatsoever that this same terrorist force is without its sympathetic friends in high places in Britain.

grisly business of murder, encouraged by Government policies of appeasement, softness and pussy-footing.

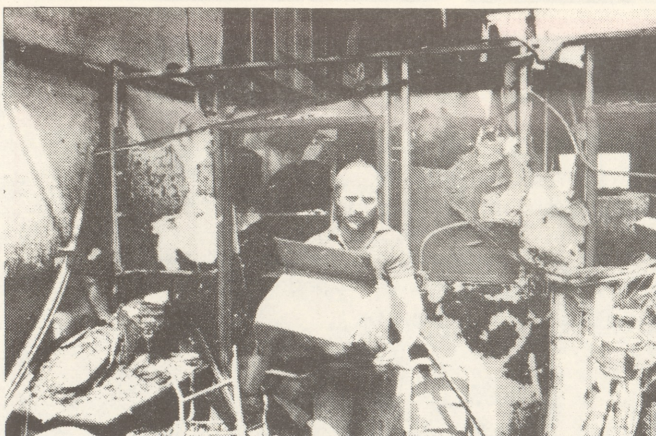

DEFENCE: Despite Tory attacks on the defence policies of the last Labour Government, the Thatcher Government's record has been no better. Recent cuts have made alarming gaps in our forces and led to widespread consternation on the part of service chiefs.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS: Mrs. Thatcher has continued the Tory tradition of subservience to America in world affairs, becoming herself just the lap-dog of President Reagan. Everywhere around the world

Britain's friends have been alienated and her enemies appeased.

Only in the Falklands War was Britain successful — and this only because of the superb performance of our young servicemen, who were fighting and dying while the Government was trying to do a 'deal' with Argentina. Mrs. Thatcher quite wrongly stole the credit for Britain's victory.

The truth is now coming home to the people. This has been a disastrous government. The Tories thoroughly deserved their trouncing at Brecon and Radnor. They have failed — and failed lamentably.

A NEW ELEMENT has now appeared among the screaming rabble attending British National Party meetings for the purpose of counter-demonstration. In addition to the mindlessly chanting mobs of the left, with which we are well familiar, we now have the equally mindlessly chanting mobs of the National Front. At a BNP outdoor rally in Hackney on July 6th a contingent of NF members turned up with the clear object of making trouble. At first they confined themselves to selling their newspapers — which they were courteously allowed to do by BNP stewards in an effort to avoid a public conflict between Nationalists in the presence of anti-Nationalists demonstrating a short distance away. This was not enough for the NF crowd, however; they then started to interrupt the speaker (David Bruce) with questions, to be told that they would have their opportunity for questions after the speeches. This undertaking was adhered to by John Tyndall at the end of his speech and after the collection, but as the question session proceeded the NF members launched into a chorus of hostile chanting against Mr. Tyndall, which came to an abrupt end as the police ordered a premature termination of the meeting.

Prominent among the hostile NF crowd was Directorate member Roger Denny — which suggests that the demonstration had the blessing of the party leadership.

No doubt this unseemly exhibition caused great mirth among the left-wing opponents of the BNP who were present — and indeed there was general agreement among BNP people afterwards that the NF and left-wing mobs were difficult to tell apart.

It is a sad indication of how low the once great National Front has sunk that it can find nothing better to do on a Saturday afternoon than to go and shout abuse at fellow Nationalists in front of the common enemy.

The BNP meeting made good local publicity, though the attendance — probably largely as a result of it being in the middle of the peak holiday season — was smaller than would have been desired.

COMING EVENTS IN SOUTH WEST Sponsored Walk

MEMBERS of the British National Party in the South Western region will be staging a sponsored walk in August in order to raise funds in support of Spearhead magazine. The walk will be from Barnstaple in North Devon to Tintagel in Cornwall, a distance of 55 miles, and will take place between the 23rd and 26th August. Those so far committed to taking part will be Adrian Baber, Miss Nikki Amor, Colin Bradbury, David Cullingford and Richard Trehane.

Supporters around the country are invited to sponsor the walkers for whatever sum per mile they can manage. Donations to: Len Bearsford Walker, 44 Patterdale Close, Estover, Plymouth, S. Devon.

Summer Camp

SOUTH WEST REGION of the British National Party will be holding a Summer Camp at a location in Cornwall from August 23rd to August 26th. There will be no charge to those attending except for special facilities used, including pony-trekking, fishing and boating. Food is not provided but is available from local shops nearby. Some tent space is available but it would be appreciated if those able to provide their own tents would bring them. All enquiries to Plymouth Branch, 44 Patterdale Close, Estover, Plymouth, S. Devon (before August 12th).

Gloucestershire BNP wins platform

BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY branches all over the country have been having great difficulty obtaining a public platform due to the almost uniform policy of town councils in denying them the hire of public halls through which to make their case heard. The BNP, however, have been hitting back by devising their own ingenious ways to obtain premises to get a hearing.

Cheltenham & Gloucester Branch outflanked one local council by setting up, in collaboration with other Nationalists, a front organisation called the 'Stroud Valley Forum', under which a hall in Stroud was booked for the purpose of a public debate on unemployment to which speakers from all parties, including the BNP, were invited.

OUR REGRETS

THE STAFF of British Nationalist apologise to readers for the fact that the paper's appearance has not been as regular or punctual during recent months as everyone would wish. This has been due to shortage of help in the work of production, with too much of a load falling on two people, one of whom has a full-time job outside the party and the other a huge weight of other party commitments. Arrangements are now being made to bring new collaborators onto the staff to help spread this load and we hope soon to revert to regular publication at the beginning of each month.

SUBSCRIBE!

In order to make sure of receiving British Nationalist regularly, why not take out a subscription? The rate is £3.45 for 12 issues for subscribers in the British Isles. For subscribers overseas the rate is £4.00 for 12 issues (surface mail). Please make cheques/POs payable to British Nationalist and send to British Nationalist, PO Box 446, London SE23 2LS.

An additional charge of £3.00 is required on all foreign cheques.
